

1. Archived web content

State and local governments' websites often include a lot of content that is not currently used. This information may be outdated, not needed, or repeated somewhere else. Sometimes, this information is archived on the website.

- Web content that meets all four of the following points would not need to meet WCAG 2.1, Level AA:
 1. The content was created before the date the state or local government must comply with this rule, or reproduces paper documents or the contents of other physical media (audiotapes, film negatives, and CD-ROMs for example) that were created before the government must comply with this rule, AND
 2. The content is kept only for reference, research, or recordkeeping, AND
 3. The content is kept in a special area for archived content, AND
 4. The content has not been changed since it was archived.
